(WO)

SGT. G. TIPPINS
Defendant,

OBJECTIONS TO SAID RECOMMENDATION

By Dismissing this case, the Court will be sending the message to all Correctional Officers that they can violate the laws and rights of inmates anytime they choose to do so, and the Court will justify their actions. Because this isn't only just a matter about the threats. SGT. G. TIPPINS has made against the Plaintiff. The Plaintiff is still unable to wear his wedding Band at family visitation, which is a violation of the Plaintiff's Religious Rights. And this disrespects his wife. Also the Acting Warden Captain Horace Burton here at Frank Lee Youth Center. Has done nothing, to attempt to correct the matter. Even where the ALA D.O.C. Policy states that the Plaintiff is justified in refusing to remove his wedding Band. Which is in the future going to cause more problems. Because visitation is conducted on the weekends when the Acting Warden Captain Horace Burton is not on duty and SGT. G. TIPPIN is in charge. And he states that he runs the Facility as he pleases. By his Rules and what he said's goes. Whether it is a violation of the Regulations or not. The First Shift LT. who is in charge of SGT. G. TIPPIN, Read the Standard Operation Procedures as to wedding Bands to me. And these Regulations place's SGT G. TIPPIN clearly in violation. Which if he had known the S.O.P Regulations, which is part of his job description, he wouldn't have had to threat and intimidate the Plaintiff. It's not my responsibility to Educate, these Officer. THE STATE OF ALABAMA Swear's that these personnel ARE properly trained. At Taxpayer's expense When they act as nothing but Bandits themselves behind a badge. The Plaintiff hopes that the Court would Reconsider it's Recommendation.

SCANNED

Sincerely, Daniel Guy
